HOME NEWS.

A MOTHER GONE

The most gracious gift God ever gave is a good mother. The home is where mother is. The love of husband and children clings to her, no matter how feeble she may be. All their troubles are told to mother, all their confidence is in her. The ties that bind her and hers in one are stronger than death. Nay, the terrible pain and grief that come at the thought of separation only prove the strength of the bond. The community has been called to witness such a separation by the death of one who came, a little child, to make her home in the wilds of Kansas, 45 years ago.

DIED—In the home of her youth, down in "the Life neighborhood," at the hour of midnight of Friday, April 11, 1902, Sarah Elizabeth, wife of Levi Goin, aged 47 years, 7 months and 19 days.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Life and came with her parents from Indiana in 1857, when they settled in this county. She was reared amidst the hardships and dangers of the days when Kansas was the extreme frontier, and on March 14, 1872, was married to Levi Goin. To them were born four children, three sons and one daughter, all of whom and her husband survive her.

Some months since, Mrs. Goin became conscious that she had an inward trouble that was sapping her life and her health began to fail. Several physicians were called but they gave but temporary relief. Her death had been expected for several weeks.

The funeral services were conducted at the residence on Sunday afternoon, by Rev. Leeper of the M. E. church, of which she had been a consistent member from her youth. Burial was in the Life cemetery, on the old farm. The casket was covered with beautiful flowers, among which was an elegant wreath, sent by the Knights and Ladies of Security, Woodmen and Workmen orders of Beattie. Mrs. Goin was a member of the first named order.

Hundreds of people gathered to pay the last tribute of respect. Marysville and Home and Beattie and all the country between seemed to be represented there. The most poignant grief of the family, the terrible wailing and agony of Georgia, her young daughter, the blank despair of husband and sons, were shared by a sympathizing company of friends that filled the house and all the yard about the old residence of Elizabeth and Martin Life. It was the saddest scene we have witnessed in many years.

Her only daughter, Georgia, 13 years old, has sent the following lines to be published:

Dearest mother, she has left us;
Left us, yes for evermore,

She has gone to join the angels
On that bright celestial shore.

Open now thy gates of pearl,
That her soul may enter in;
She shall wear a crown of glory
And be free from pain and sin.

Must we part with you, dear mother?
For oh! our grief is deep and sore,
But we hope to meet in heaven,
There to meet and part no more.

Though her pain has been severe,
And her trials hard to bear,
Yet the Lord of love and mercy;
He has ended all her care

Though her years were not all sunshine,
Yet the victory now is won,
To the Lord she brings her talents;
He will say to her, "Well done."

Soon again we hope to meet her,
Soon again her face to see,
In our Saviour's heavenly mansion.
Where no sorrow e'er shall be.

Hush, tread lightly, Mother's sleeping,
Yes, in death so cold, so still,
And no more we'll hear her footsteps,
And no more her place she'll fill.

She has gone to meet her Saviour,
In that home beyond the skies,
And when we are called to follow
There we'll meet in paradise.

Mr. Levi Goin and his family desire to express their sincere thanks to all their friends and neighbors who so kindly and faithfully assisted during their recent bereavement, and to the several beneficiary orders for the flowers which they brought.

FUNERAL RITES FOR LEVI GOIN SUNDAY

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Beattie Methodist Episcopal church for Levi Goin, 87, who died the Tuesday before at the home of his son, Martin L. Goin, in Spokane, Wash. The Rev. E. N. Judd was in charge. Interment was in "Old Life" cemetery on Mr. Goin's home place.

Born July 24, 1848, in Taswel, Tenn., Mr. Goin came to Marshall county when he was twenty-one. He was married March 18, 1872, to Sarah Elizabeth Life. To them four children were born, all surviving, William H., Fairbury; Mrs. Georgia McDowell, Cheney, Wash.; Oscar C., Beattie; and Martin L., Spokane, Wash. Mrs. Goin died April 11, 1902.

Mr. Goin married a second time to Martha Kyle, who died in January, 1933.

Besides his four children Mr. Goin leaves sixteen grandchildren, seven great grandchildren, and two brothers, Proctor of Liberty, Nebr., and Howard, who lives in Florida. A granddaughter, Mrs. Ray Brooks, lives at 609 North Sixth, Marysville.

Fifty Years in Marshall County.

Mrs. Martha Lewis, whose death is announced in another column of this issue, was one of Marshall county's pioneer residents. She came to this county in July '57 and settled on the Vermillion, south of Beattie, and as she has resided there since that time she has witnessed the development of this county during the last half century of progress.

Deceased leaves nine living children. Four sons: George Martin, of Beattie; Joshua Martin, Galesburg, Kans.; Frank Lewis, Beattie; Wm. Lewis, Beattie. There are five daughters; Mrs. Sarah Crane, Marysville; Mrs. Emma Gallagheer, Beattie; Mrs. Julia Thompson, Home; Mrs. Lucy Yates, Beattie; Mrs. Dolly Burnsides, Oklahoma.

Mrs. Martha Lewis, mother of Mrs. Wm. Crane of this city, died at her home in Beattie Thursday morning at the age of sixty-nine years. The funeral was held Friday and interment made in the Life cemetery. The cause of her death was paralysis of which she suffered a stroke on Sunday, June 9.

Death of William Lewis.

William Lewis' sufferings are at an end. For two or more years a cancer on his face has made life a heavy burden for him. Many remedies and several operations have proven of no avail. Death came to his relief on Friday July 31, 1903, shortly after 12 o'clock, noon.

William Lewis was born in 1845, near Louisville, Illinois. When the Civil war came on he was living in the western part of Missouri and he joined a company of Home Guards to protect the country against the incursions of Qantrell's band. He remained with this company until it disbanded temporarily, to enable the men to go home and look after their crops in the fall of 1861. While Mr. Lewis was at his place of residence, (for his parents died when he was small) Quantrell's men found he was there and they determined to kill him. Lewis evaded them aud by sleeping in the woods and keeping a sharp lookout for them in the daytime, he saved himself. But that kind of life became tiresome and he came to Kansas to be free from it. His company never had any record on file, and so the members of it never could get recognation from the government.

In 1863, he was united in Marriage with Mrs Martha Martin, a widow lady whose husband had died in the army early in the war To this un ion were born six children, all of whom and their mother survive, and reside in this vicinity. They are Frank, Mrs. Gallagher, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs Yates, and Della and William

The funeral serivces on Saturday were in the M. E. church by Rev. Hamilton of Axtell, and burial was in the Life cemetery south of Beattie.

William Lewis was a good, quiet, loyal citizen, a faithful friend and father. For two years he had been sick and was not out among his friends very much, but his nature was to be sociable and friendly.

Additional Information:

George Martin

The eldest son of Joseph and Martha Martin was born in Tecumseh, Delaware County, Indiana, and moved with his parents to Marshall County, Kansas when two years of age. Their home was on the Black Vermillion river. George was not to know the blessings of a father's guiding hand, for when the Civil War broke out the father enlisted and later died in the service. We can imagine the hardships and trials of those early pioneer days. As a young man Mr. Martin was connected with the famous Pony Express and rode a horse carrying the mail between Pawnee City and the Otoe reservation.

On December 15, 1874, Mr. Martin was united in marriage to Rebecca Edmundson of Home City. The groom had purchased the farm which was later known as the Harve Manning farm. Here this young couple set up housekeeping and begun the long journey through life. Not many couples are privileged to live together even fifty years but this ccuple would have completed sixty years of companionship if death had waited until the 15th of next December.

After changing farms two or three times Mr. and Mrs. Martin moved to the farm south of town which was still in his possession at the time of his death. Sixteen years ago they retired from the farm and moved into Beattie, where he passed away at the time of the setting sun, April 27, 1934. He was 78 years, 11 months and 11 days of age.

There were eleven children born into this home. Four of them have passed on before. They are: Joseph and Florence who died in infancy; Mrs. Myrtle Kooser, who died in 1916; and Raymond who died in 1917 at the age of 20. Those living are: Mrs. Ella Willey of Westmorland; Henry Martin of Vliets; Mrs. Nora Cassidy of Monument, Mrs. May Boggs, Mrs. Evelyn Lucas, William Martin and Mrs. Vada Severin of Beattie. One brother and two half brothers survive the deceased. They are Joshua Martin of Independence, Kansas, and Frank Lewis of Beattie, and Wm. J. Lewis of Springer, New Mexico. There are also three half-sisters: Mrs. Emma Henderson of Beattie, Mrs. Lucy Yates of Frankfort and Mrs. Della Burnside of Marysville.

There are twenty-six grand children and eight great grandchildren and many other relatives who will miss this grandfather who has been the head of the family for so many years.

It is unusual for anyone who is approaching old age to change their attitude in the matter of religion. Mr. Martin at the age of sixty years gave his heart to God and united with the Methodist Church of Beattie. As far as he wah able he gave his service to the church which had confidence in his Christian life and character.

I can not say and will not say
That he is dead — he is just away!

With a cheerful smile and a wave of the hand
He has wandered into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be since he lingers there.

And you , O you, who the wildest yearn
For tht old time step and glad return,
Think of him as faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here.

Think of him still as the same. I say;
He is not dead — he is just away.

The funeral services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. H. Tannehill at the church Sunday afternoon. A large audience of friends and neighbors were present to pay respects to one of the last few remaining pioneers who came here when there was nobody on all these wide prairies. His body rests in the Beattie Union Cemetery.

Mrs. Rebecca Martin

Mrs. Rebecca Martin passed away at her home here Monday morning, April 27, at 7:10 o'clock, She had been ill with dropsy for several months. Mrs. Martin had lived in Marshall County for 56 years, the greater part of the time in this community. She was the mother of a large family and was very devoted to home and children, and was a good neighbor and kind friend. Her death brings to a close a long and useful life.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, from the home at 1:30 and from the Methodist Church at two o'clock. Rev. E. H. Tannehill, of Hope, former pastor of the Beattie Methodist Church gave the funeral sermon. Burial was in the Beattie Union Cemetery.

Rebecca Edmundson was born at McKeesport, Pa., August 17, 1857 and died at Beattie, Kansas, April 27, 1936, aged 78 years, eigh months and ten days.

With her parents she came to a farm south of Home City, in the spring of 1870. On December 15, 1854, she was married to Geo. W. Martin, and to this union eleven children were born, two of whom died in infancy, and a daughter, Mrs. J. A. Kooser, in 1916, and a son Raymond in 1917. Her husband passed away April 27, 1934, just two years ago to a day from Mrs. Martin's death.

She is survived by seven children: Mrs. F. B. Willey, Westmorland, Kansas; Henry Martin, Vliets, Kans; Mrs. W. B. Cassidy, Monument, Kansas; Mrs. George Boggs, Frankfort, Kansas; Mrs. Eva Lucas, Frankfort, Kansas; Wm. Martin, Beattie, Kansas; and Mrs. Elmer Severin, Beattie, Kansas. Also twenty-six grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren, and one brother, Homer B. Edmundson.

Mrs. Martin united with the Beattie M. E. Church and remained a faithful member until her death.

FRANK LEWIS, BEATTIE IS CALLED BY DEATH

Frank Lewis, a lifelong resident of the Beattie community, died last Thursday morning at 8:45 oclock at the Marysville hospital, where he was taken just a week before for care. At no time after he entered the hospital did physicians offer the family any hope for his recovery. His daughter, Mrs. Gladys Patterson, and her baby daughter, Phyllis, of Gold Park, Ontario, Canada, arrived only a few days before his death.

Surviving, besides the daughter and granddaughter, are two sisters, Mrs. John Burnside, Marysville, and Mrs. George Yates, Frankfort; a brother, William Lewis, Albuquerque, N. M.; a half brother, Joshua Martin, Independence, Kas.; and a step daughter, Mrs. Harry Wilcox, Beattie.

Born March 14, 1866, near Beattie, Mr. Lewis' exact age at the time of death was 69 years, 11 months and 2 days. In October, 1895, he was married to Ettie Berry, who died thirty-six years ago on Christmas day. His second marriage was August 8, 1907, to Jessie Hadder, who died about eight years ago.

Funeral services were held at the Beattie Methodist Episcopal church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. E. N. Judd in charge. Interment was in the Beattie Union cemetery.

Obituary.

Died at the home of Mrs. Minnie Livery of University Place Nebr. Sept. 5, 1902 Mrs. Sarah Ann McNew the wife of James McNew of Schroyer Kansas, She in company with her husband had gone to attend the Nebr. State fair. While there she was stricken with paralysis of the heart.

This illness that caused her death was of a short duration begining on the night of Sept. 2. She patiently bore her suffering and throughout her affliction she was ever solicitous and considerate of the friends and relatives that surrounded her. The funeral services were held at 2 oclock Sunday in the M. E. church in Schroyer Rev. Dennis and Rev. Bernhard performed the last sad rites. A very large concourse of friends accompanied the grief stricken mourners to the place of interment at Elm Creek cemetery. All eyes were dimmed and each one had a kind word of cheer. All knew her life as an open page, spotless, pure, and good. Her lifes story was made of kind deeds. Many a saddened ones burden has been made lighter many a weary one gladdened by the sunshine that she cast on the gloom.

Farewell dear mother, sweet thy rest,
Weary with years and worn with pain,
Dearest loved one we have laid thee
In the peaceful graves embrace, we will e'er the memory cherish till we see thy heavenly face.

T'is hard to break the tender cord when love has bound the heart.
T'is hard, so hard, to speak the words
Must we forever part?
Then farewell till in some happy place
We shall behold thy angel face again.

Obituary.

Died at the home of Mrs. Minnie Livery of University Place Nebr. Sept. 5, 1902 Mrs. Sarah Ann McNew the wife of James McNew of Schroyer Kansas. She in company with her husband had gone to attend the Nebr. State fair. While there she was stricken with paralysis of the heart.

The illness that caused her death was of a short duration begining on the night of Sept. 2. She patiently bore her suffering and throughout her affliction she was ever solicitous and considerate of the friends and relatives that surrounded her. The funeral services were held at 2 oclock Sunday in the M. E. church in Schroyer Rev. Dennis and Rev. Bernhard performed the last sad rites. A very large concourse of friends accompanied the grief stricken mourners to the place of interment at Elm Creek cemetery. All eyes were dimmed and each one had a kind word of cheer. All knew her life as an open page, spotless, pure, and good. Her lifes story was made of kind deeds. Many a saddened ones burden has been made lighter many a weary one gladdened by the sunshine that she cast on the gloom.

Farewell dear mother, sweet thy rest,
Weary with years and worn with pain,
Dearest loved one we have laid thee
In the peaceful graves embrace, we will e'er the memory cherish till we see thy heavenly face.

T'is hard to break the tender cord when love has bound the heart.
T'is hard, so hard, to speak the words
Must we forever part?
Then farewell till in some happy place
We shall behold thy angel face again.
